

You are invited to take part in this year's creative writing competition.

It is being held in the run up to Mirfield Agricultural Show, with prizes for the most interesting short-stories and poems.

Your story or poem can be as short as you wish.

Please legibly write or type your story or poem on one side of as many sheets of paper as it takes.

You will need to give your name, address and telephone number and, in the case of people under sixteen years of age, your age and your parent, guardian or other responsible adult's name and signature – just to confirm that they agree to the terms of the competition. These details must be put on a separate piece of paper, securely attached to your story.

Winners will be announced on 14th August 2012.

The main prizes for this competition have been donated by Charlotte's Jersey Ice Cream Limited.

The terms and conditions are simple;

1. You agree to share your story or poem by it being reproduced and displayed (space permitting) at this year's Mirfield Show and also included in a limited edition booklet of winning tales and poems - and others that the judge particularly likes - to be available for give away at the show.

(Only the writer's name will be given on displays and in the booklet.)

2. Winners will be presented with their prizes at the Show – we may take pictures - don't worry if you are on holiday – we'll keep your prizes safe!

3. The stories and poems will be judged by local writer Hannah Ridgeway, the editor of the Mirfield Reporter, and must be submitted by 20th July 2012.

4. The judge's decision will be final.

5. If there are fewer than six entries in any class, we reserve the right to amalgamate classes, and re-award the un-used prize .

6. Entries should be e-mailed to writers.mirfieldshow@ntlworld.com or posted to Mirfield Show Creative Writing Competition, 51 Springfield Park, Mirfield WF14 9PE.

7. We may include a selection of winning stories and poems on our website. If you do not wish your story or poem to appear on our website, we will respect your wishes if you let us know by 31 August 2012.
